

Energypact Events Terms & Conditions

1. Energypact Foundation events are being organized and held with an idea of raising awareness and maintaining cooperation between vast number of stakeholders in respective areas.
2. In order to keep its neutrality, Energypact events strive for equal and balanced representation of all participants.
3. As a non-partisan foundation, Energypact events are not open for confrontation, but forums through which differentiated opinions and views in dialogue could be freely expressed.
4. Energypact events are attended by invitation only, and thus, the registration process is valid only after the organizing team confirms it back to the registered participant.
5. Some of Energypact events (or their parts), could be conducted under the Chatham House rules, and all the participants within those sessions will be prior informed about it. At a meeting held under the Chatham House Rule, anyone who comes to the meeting is free to use information from the discussion, but is not allowed to reveal who made any comment. It is designed to increase openness of discussion.
6. Please note that due to high visibility and promotion of the values, principles, and events themselves, Energypact Foundation keeps the right to publish photos from sessions. All individuals willing to opt out from being on photos, should notify the organizers before the event starts, via e-mail: viennaproject@energypact.org
7. All the participants are kindly invited to respect specific security procedures for physical entrance on different venues, on which Energypact Foundation does not have an influence.
8. I confirm that I give my consent to all of the provisions written above.
