

Energypact Foundation Events Terms & Conditions

1. Energypact Foundation events are being organized and held with an idea of raising awareness and maintaining cooperation between vast number of stakeholders in respective areas.
2. In order to keep its neutrality, Energypact events strive for equal and balanced representation of all participants.
3. As a non-partisan foundation, Energypact events are not open for confrontation, but forums through which differentiated opinions and views in dialogue could be freely expressed.
4. Energypact events are attended by invitation only, and thus, the registration process is valid only after the organizing team confirms it back to the registered participant.
5. Some of Energypact events (or their parts), could be conducted under the Chatham House rules, and all the participants within those sessions will be prior informed about it. At a meeting held under the Chatham House Rule, anyone who comes to the meeting is free to use information from the discussion but is not allowed to reveal who made any comment. It is designed to increase openness of discussion.
6. At the event, Energypact Foundation, AIT and WKO will be responsible for creating image, video and sound recordings for the purposes of documentation, follow-up reporting and future marketing of the event format. The processing is carried out on the basis of the legitimate interests of those responsible to produce truthful documentation or to provide up-to-date multimedia information about the event. The recordings made will be made available to all organisers, co-organisers and supporting partners of the event as well as to selected media companies for the purpose of follow-up reporting or marketing of the event format and to the public. Recordings will be stored until they are no longer required for documentation or advertising of the event format. If you do not wish to be photographed, you can inform the photographer or the camera team on site at any time. Further information on data protection can also be found at: <https://www.ait.ac.at/disclaimer-data-protection/> and <https://www.wko.at/service/datenschutzerklaerung.html>
7. Please note that due to high visibility and promotion of the values, principles, and events themselves, Energypact Foundation keeps the right to publish photos from sessions. All individuals willing to opt out from being on photos, should notify the organizers before the event starts, via e-mail: VCSW2019@energypact.org
8. By registering and/or sending the data, the participants agree that the personal data communicated electronically, by telephone, verbally, by fax or in writing (company name, address, telephone, fax, email, website, industry, products or services offered, gender, first name and surname, title, etc.) may be processed by the Energypact Foundation as well as by all co-organizing partners for the active support of our marketing activities abroad (in particular invitations to trade fairs, economic missions, presentations, specific information about products, business opportunities), used for the handling of the event and be made accessible to interested parties at home and abroad via all information media of the Energypact Foundation as well as by all co-organizing partners (in particular print media and within the framework of the Internet presence of the Energypact Foundation as well as by all co-organizing partners).
9. The participants also give their revocable consent (solely in writing or by e-mail to the event organiser) that their first name and surname as well as the name of the company may be published in a list of participants. If cooperation partners are named in the advertisement for the event, the participants give revocable consent in this case that they agree that their personal details (in particular e-mail address and telephone number) indicated for the communication of marketing, advertising and information materials may be forwarded to the cooperation partners named in the advertisement for the event and may be used by the latter. This declaration of consent can be revoked at any time by an e-mail to the event organiser; this email does not have to comply with any formal requirements. The event organiser is obligated to forward the revocation of the declaration of consent to the cooperation partners concerned without delay so that they can also implement it.

10. The participants also agree to the electronic recording and analysis of the quality assessments. A written revocation of this declaration of consent is possible at any time VCSW2019@energypact.org.
11. All the participants are kindly invited to respect specific security procedures for physical entrance on different venues, on which Energypact Foundation does not have an influence.
12. I confirm that I give my consent to all of the provisions written above.
